Attachment B

On October 3, 2007, Park Strategies, on behalf of its then-foreign principal (Taiwan's Kuomintang-People's First Party Representative Office in the United States) hosted former Taiwan Premier Vincent Siew on Capitol Hill. In addition to a House reception held in his honor in the Rayburn House Office Building that evening, Mr. Siew also had private meetings with eight U.S. Senators, and happened to meet informally another ten senators over the course of the day. Please see attached a list of 42 U.S. Members of Congress whom Mr. Siew met that day.

Prior to October 3rd, 2007, Mr. D'Amato sent out a number of invitations to U.S. Members of Congress, asking them to meet Mr. Siew on that day. He also made follow-up phone calls. Through until October 18th (the date of termination of the registration), Senator D'Amato sent personal thank-you notes to the 42 Members who did meet Mr. Siew. While we did not save copies of every invitation and thank-you letter, we have included a master list of those Members who received invitations, copies of 19 invitations and 14 thank-you letters – which were to Members and which are illustrative of the content and form of all such correspondence sent from our office.

In anticipation of meeting Mr. Siew, several Members' staffs asked for background memos. Please also see attached copies of two such memos (e.g. memos to the offices of Senators Lieberman and McConnell), all of which followed the same template. Other offices required more specific follow-up, as per the sample e-mail communication with Senator Max Baucus' staff. We have included copies of those congressional still in our possession.

Park Strategies also twice reached out to Executive Branch officials on Mr. Siew's behalf. This included a September 2007 call to White House staffer Neal Burnham to inquire as to whom at the U.S. Department of Commerce might be willing to meet Mr. Siew during his October 2007 visit to Washington, D.C. Upon learning that Mr. Siew would be meeting Assistant Secretary of Commerce David Bohigian, we sent Mr. Bohigian a courtesy advisory e-mail (a copy of which is included here).

On October 2nd, Park Strategies issued the attached press release in anticipation of Mr. Siew's visit. The release was sent by to roughly 100 recipients, mainly New York, U.S. and Asian media outlets, as well as various academics and business organizations. In response to the press release, Bloomberg-TV's Zeb Eckert called on October 4th, seeking an interview with Mr. Siew (which ultimately did not occur).

Park Strategies arranged use of a room at Washington's Metropolitan Club on October 4th for Mr. Siew's Executive Branch meetings (please see attached e-mail), and attempted to arrange an introduction between Mr. Siew and Fred Thompson for President campaign staffer Mark Esper (please see attached e-mail).

ATTACHMENT E

Attached hereto please find copies of informational materials which were distributed by Registrant on behalf of the Foreign Principal pursuant to activities undertaken by Registrant in furtherance of its efforts in connection with Vincent Siew's visit to Washington, DC in October of 2007. The details concerning the visit, and the Registrant's activities in connection with it, are described more fully in Attachments B and C to this Supplemental Statement.

The Registrant inadvertently did not file these materials with the U.S. Department of Justice and did not appropriately label the materials that it distributed. As indicated in item #7, Registrant's connection with this foreign principal was terminated on 10/18/2007.

Rep. John Boehner
Attn: Kristen Frahler
1011 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Congressman Boehner,

I am writing to you today about the man who I think will be Taiwan's next Vice President.

Opposition Kuomintang (KMT) Vice Presidential candidate Vincent Siew will visit Washington on October 3rd-5th. He specifically asked me if he could meet you when he visits Capitol Hill on October 3rd.

Mr. Siew was Taiwan's Minister of Economic Affairs from 1990-1993, and Premier from 1997-2000. He also twice represented Taiwan at Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) summits. I have enclosed Mr. Siew's full biography, for your reference.

It would mean a lot to me if you could make time for Mr. Siew when he visits Washington next month. There will be a reception for him in Room 2200 in the Rayburn House Office Building on Wednesday, October 3rd from 5-7pm. If that does not suit your schedule, we can always arrange a one-on-one sit down.

Please contact Dana Weisberg in my office at (212) 883-5608 or at dweisberg@parkstrateiges.com to make arrangements.

Best of luck to you this session, and I look forward to seeing you next month.

Sincerely,

Al D'Amato

Washington, DC 20510

Dear Senator Inouye,

I am writing to you about the man who I think will be Taiwan's next Vice President. Opposition Kuomintang (KMT) Vice Presidential candidate Vincent Siew will visit Washington on October 3rd-5th. He specifically asked me if he could meet you when he visits Capitol Hill on October 3rd.

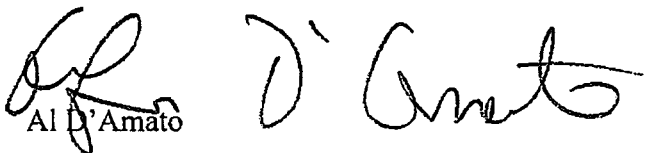

Mr. Siew was Taiwan's Minister of Economic Affairs from 1990-1993, and Premier from 1997-2000. He also twice represented Taiwan at Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) summits. I have enclosed Mr. Siew's full biography, for your reference.

It would mean a lot to me if you could make time for Mr. Siew when he visits Washington next month. We can arrange a one-on-one sit down, a lunch, or whatever fits your schedule.

Please contact Dana Weisberg in my office at (212) 883-5608 or at dweisberg@parkstrateiges.com to make arrangements.

Best of luck to you this session, and I look forward to seeing you next month.

Sincerely,

Al D'Amato

Dear Arlen,

Thank you so very much for everything in conjunction with former Taiwan Premier Vincent Siew's October 3rd visit to Washington.

Thank you first of all for arranging the lunch in the Senate Dining Room. But thanks most of all for – once you knew you'd have to miss the lunch that day because you'd be in Pennsylvania with President Bush – making the extra effort to come to the reception that night in the Rayburn Building. That really meant a lot to me, and I won't forget it.

You're a true friend, and I know you're always there for me. Let's talk soon.

Dear Norm,

Thank you so much for taking time out at the end of the day to host former Taiwan Premier Vincent Siew in your office on October 3rd.

I unfortunately to duck out and confer with Senator Domenici at that time. But your meeting meant a lot to me, and I know it did to him as well. I hear the meeting was short, but valuable. It was also Mr. Siew's last Senate appointment of the day, and set the stage for turned out to be a wonderful House reception.

Thanks again, and let's talk again soon.

Sincerely,

Dana,

It is my understanding that the Senator has agreed to meet with Taiwan Vice Presidential Candidate Vincent Siew on October 3, 2007. I believe the Senator's scheduler Hardy Lott still needs to work out the time for the meeting.

I will be working with Mitch Waldman and Troy Dunn to prepare the Senator for the meeting. It would be very helpful if you could please provide me the points that Mr. Siew would like to discuss with the Senator. If we could receive the points by COB Friday it would be excellent. Thank you for the assistance and we look forward to meeting Mr. Siew.

RE: Senator Lieberman's meeting with Taiwan VP candidate Vincent Siew
Wednesday, October 3rd at 1:30pm (SH 706)

DATE: October 2nd, 2007

Thanks to Senator Lieberman for agreeing to meet Taiwan opposition Kuomintang (KMT) vice presidential candidate Vincent SIEW (pronounced "shoo").

Mr. Siew is here to convey his party's policies ahead of Taiwan's March 22nd, 2008 presidential election. Mr. Siew (please see full bio enclosed) has previously served as Taiwan Premier (1997-2000), and as Minister of Economic Affairs from (1990-1993). He twice represented Taiwan at APEC.

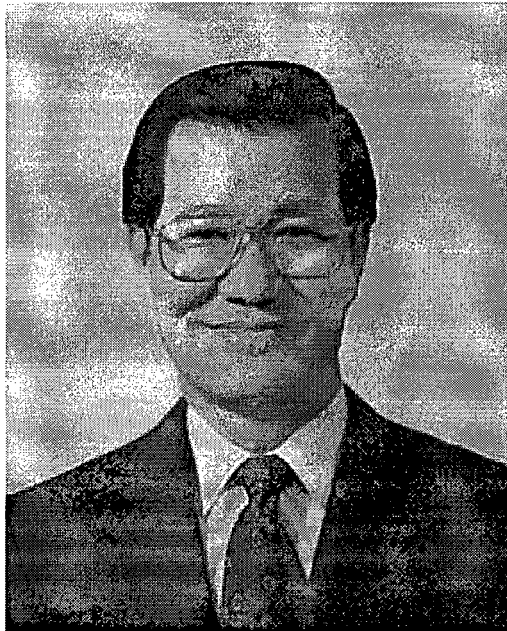

Mr. Siew is running on a ticket headed by former Taipei Mayor MA Ying-jeou. The KMT ticket, if elected, will not kowtow to mainland China. But neither will it provoke unnecessary confrontation with Beijing for confrontation's sake, only further complicating U.S. responsibilities and concerns in the region.

The KMT supports Taiwan's membership in the United Nations, but under whatever name necessary (substance over form). The KMT will liberalize at least outbound trade with mainland China, thereby reinserting Taiwan into the heart of the Asian supply chain, and plans to welcome one million mainland Chinese tourists in Year One.

Thanks again for helping to make this meeting happen. Please let me know if you need anything else.

Vincent C. Siew

Born in Chiayi City in 1939, Vincent Siew graduated from the Department of Diplomacy at Taiwan's National Chengchi University in 1961. He received a master's degree from the university's Graduate Institute of International Law and Diplomacy in 1965.

Mr. Siew worked at the Republic of China's (ROC) Consulate General in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia from 1966 to 1972, until the ROC left the United Nations. He was named to the Central Committee of the Kuomintang (KMT) in 1988. He was Minister of Economic Affairs from 1990-1993. As Chairman for Economic Planning Development, he represented then President Lee Teng-hui at the 1993 and 1994 annual APEC summits. Mr. Siew was elected a Member of the Legislative Yuan from 1996 to 1997, then serving as Premier under President Lee from 1997 to 2000. He was the Kuomintang's (KMT) vice-presidential candidate in the unsuccessful campaign of 2000.

Siew is married to Susan Chu; they have three daughters. Mr. Siew has served as Chairman of the Chung-Hua Institution for Economic Research, and the Cross-Straits Common Market Foundation. He is the KMT's candidate for Vice President in Taiwan's 2008 presidential election.

Hi Sean. We can't put meetings on the Senator's schedule. All meetings must be requested through his scheduler, Bree Rogers (brianne_rogers@baucus.senate.gov). You should email her the scheduling request.

I took a look at his schedule for next week. It's pretty crazy. I think it's going to be tough to make it work, but you should try with Bree anyway. You never know!

Mr. Marantis,

My name is Sean King. I work at Park Strategies LLC, a business advisory managed by the former Senator from New York, Alfonse M. D'Amato. I'm writing you at the suggestion of Brian Pomper.

Taiwan's opposition Kuomintang (KMT) candidate for Vice President, Mr. Vincent Siew, will visit Capitol Hill on Wednesday, October 3rd. He already has a pretty full schedule that day, but has specifically asked for the opportunity to meet Senator Baucus, even if just for a few minutes. Please see attached the September 17th meeting request and Mr. Siew's bio.

Mr. Siew is Taiwan's former Minister of Economic Affairs (1990-93) and Premier (1997-2000). He twice represented Taiwan at APEC (1993-94). Having also served as Chairman of the Cross-Straits Common Market Foundation and the Chung-Hua Institution for Economic Research, Mr. Siew is widely considered his party's leading voice on trade and economics (please see Bloomberg news story below). He has repeatedly called for a Chinese-speaking common market encompassing Taiwan, mainland China and Hong Kong. He would of course, one day like to see an FTA between Taiwan and the United States, but only if and when Taiwan first reforms from within and - more importantly - lifts restrictions on at least outbound trade and investment with mainland China.

Mr. Siew is perhaps the key player on the subjects of the U.S.-Taiwan-P.R.C. trade triangle and Taiwan's economic place within East Asia. A meeting with Senator Baucus would be of tremendous value to him, and - if his side wins the March 22nd Taiwan election - to the people of Taiwan. Please let me know if there's anything we can work out. Thanks so much in advance for your consideration.

Best wishes,

Sean King

Taiwan's Ma Ying-jeou Chooses Siew as Running Mate (Update2)

By Tim Culpan and Yu-huay Sun

June 23 (Bloomberg) -- Taiwan's Kuomintang party candidate Ma Ying-jeou announced Vincent Siew as his running mate for next year's presidential election.

``Taiwan's situation is tough and it faces challenges,'' Siew said in the Taiwanese dialect at a press conference held by Ma in Taipei. ``We need someone with experience.''

Siew, 68, was premier of Taiwan from 1997 till 2000, when the Kuomintang lost the presidency to Chen Shui-bian's Democratic Progressive Party. He was the party's vice-presidential candidate in 2000, during Lien Chan's failed bid for the presidency. The Lien-Siew ticket finished third behind Chen and then-independent James Soong.

Ma, born in Hong Kong, is running against locally born Frank Hsieh, the ruling Democratic Progressive Party's candidate. The Kuomintang is focusing on improving the economy to combat the DPP's appeal among indigenous Taiwanese.

``It's clear that Ma wants to appeal to the middle-ground voters with Siew's financial and economics background,'' Philip Yang, an associate professor of political science at National Taiwan University, said today in a telephone interview.

The 56-year-old Ma said Siew's experience in dealing with Taiwan-U.S. trade talks will help the island open up to freer trade with neighboring countries, Ma said.

``With Mr. Siew's pragmatic, open and steady style, I'm sure he will become a key architect to reshape Taiwan's economy,'' Ma said.

Expanding Economy

The island's economy is forecast to expand 4.38 percent this year, slowing from 4.68 percent growth last year and from 5.75 percent in 1999.

Siew founded the Cross-Straits Common Market Foundation, a non-government organization promoting the removal of economic barriers with the mainland. He met Chinese President Hu

Jintao at the Boao Forum for Asia on Hainan island in 2004, according to the foundation's Web site.

Born in Chiayi in southern Taiwan, Siew received his undergraduate and master's degrees in international law and diplomacy from Taipei's National Chengchi University.

He's held the posts of director-general of Taiwan's board of foreign trade and chairman of the cabinet-level Council for Economic Planning and Development.

``The choice of Vincent Siew will help relations with the mainland, as he has been promoting cross-Strait exchanges over the past years,'' said Kevin Yang, Taipei-based chief investment officer at Paradigm Asset Management Co., which oversees $360 million in assets. ``He'll also help get votes in central and southern Taiwan, as he's from the south.''

Ma leads Hsieh in terms of popularity among voters, the Taipei-based Economic Daily News said on May 28, putting Ma's support at 57.3 percent compared with 42.7 percent for his rival in the newspaper's own survey.

Hi Mr. King!

Thank you so much for passing along this request for Senator Baucus to meet with Mr. Siew next week. Very unfortunately, his week is already completely packed. As the week of October 1st is the last week before our Columbus Day Recess in the Senate, the Senator has been booked solid for almost a month. On top of his many obligations in the Finance Committee, we have many constituents visiting from Montana that must book their travel far in advance, so they have been looking forward to their meetings for quite some time. Therefore, it is with deepest regrets that I must inform you that we will not be able to accommodate Mr. Siew. If a meeting with our wonderful staff would be of any interest, do not hesitate to contact Demetrios or Janis and they will be happy to help. Please let me know how I can be of further assistance!

Warmest regards,
 Bree

Hi Sean. We can't put meetings on the Senator's schedule. All meetings must be requested through his scheduler, Bree Rogers (brianne_rogers@baucus.senate.gov). You should email her the scheduling request.

I took a look at his schedule for next week. It's pretty crazy. I think it's going to be tough to make it work, but you should try with Bree anyway. You never know!

Best,

Demetrios

Mr. Marantis,

My name is Sean King. I work at Park Strategies LLC, a business advisory managed by the former Senator from New York, Alfonse M. D'Amato. I'm writing you at the suggestion of Brian Pomper.

Taiwan's opposition Kuomintang (KMT) candidate for Vice President, Mr. Vincent Siew, will visit Capitol Hill on Wednesday, October 3rd. He already has a pretty full schedule that day, but has specifically asked for the opportunity to meet Senator Baucus, even if just for a few minutes. Please see attached the September 17th meeting request and Mr. Siew's bio.

Mr. Siew is Taiwan's former Minister of Economic Affairs (1990-93) and Premier (1997-2000). He twice represented Taiwan at APEC (1993-94). Having also served as Chairman of the Cross-Straits Common Market Foundation and the Chung-Hua Institution for Economic Research, Mr. Siew is widely considered his party's leading voice on trade and economics (please see Bloomberg news story below). He has repeatedly called for a Chinese-speaking common market encompassing Taiwan, mainland China and Hong Kong. He would of course, one day like to see an FTA between Taiwan and the United States, but only if and when Taiwan first reforms from within and – more importantly – lifts restrictions on at least outbound trade and investment with mainland China.

Mr. Siew is perhaps the key player on the subjects of the U.S.-Taiwan-P.R.C. trade triangle and Taiwan's economic place within East Asia. A meeting with Senator Baucus would be of tremendous value to him, and – if his side wins the March 22nd Taiwan election – to the people of Taiwan. Please let me know if there's anything we can work out. Thanks so much in advance for your consideration.

Best wishes,

Taiwan's Ma Ying-jeou Chooses Siew as Running Mate (Update2)

June 23 (Bloomberg) -- Taiwan's Kuomintang party candidate Ma Ying-jeou announced Vincent Siew as his running mate for next year's presidential election.

"Taiwan's situation is tough and it faces challenges," Siew said in the Taiwanese dialect at a press conference held by Ma in Taipei. "We need someone with experience."

Dana,

I called the Metropolitan Club regarding using Wayne's membership to reserve a room for Mr. Siew's meetings w/State Department officials. They made it very clear to me that Wayne had to present during Mr. Siew's use of the room. Unfortunately, Wayne has a full schedule on October 4th and is not able to sit at the Club while Mr. Siew's has his meetings.

Here is a list of really nice hotels that would be able to provide a meeting room for Mr. Siew:

1. Hay Adams
2. The Willard Hotel
3. The Mayflower Hotel

So sorry we weren't able to help out!!

Taiwan opposition candidate Vincent Siew (pronounced "Shoo") will visit Washington, DC on October 3rd-5th. We're handling the visit.

Mr. Shoo wants to rent a meeting room at the Metropolitan Club, of which Wayne Berman is a member, from 2:30-5pm on Thursday, October 4th.

The room will be used at that time for Mr. Siew's meetings w/State Department officials, thanks.

Mark,

It was nice talking with you the other day. I'm sorry to hear you cannot make the October 3rd breakfast, but I understand the rigors of campaign life.

Could you please consider sending somebody else worthwhile, of foreign policy background, in your place? It'd mean a lot, thanks. Again, the breakfast is on Wednesday, October 3, 7:45 a.m. at the Marriott at the Metro Center (775 12th Street, N.W.), Vintage Room (2nd Floor). Thanks again.

David,

My name is Sean King. I spent five years at Commerce (2001-06) and was in China with you at least once.

On Thursday, you're going to meet Taiwan opposition candidate for VP, Mr. Vincent Siew. I myself am working on the Senate portion of Mr. Siew's trip, and have worked very closely with Mr. Siew's Washington, DC representative, Jason Yuan. Please enjoy the meeting, and let's keep in touch.

D'Amato Welcomes Former Taiwan Premier and Vice Presidential Candidate Siew

Former United States Senator from New York Alfonse M. D'Amato (1981-99) will host former Taiwan Premier and opposition Kuomintang (KMT) candidate for Vice President, Vincent SIEW, on Wednesday for lunch on Capitol Hill.

Senator D'Amato was a loyal friend of Taiwan during his 18-year service in the U.S. Senate. In May 2006, as Managing Director of Park Strategies LLC, he traveled to Taiwan to meet KMT presidential candidate, and then Taipei Mayor, MA Ying-jeou.

While in Washington, Mr. Siew will meet privately with a number of senators, from both sides of the aisle. Thereafter, Mr. Siew will be hosted by several U.S. House Members at a reception to be held in his honor at the House Committee on Foreign Relations.

Vincent Siew served as Taiwan's Minister of Economic Affairs from 1990-1993. As Chairman for Economic Planning and Development, he represented Taiwan at the 1993 and 1994 APEC summits. He was Premier from 1997-2000. Mr. Siew has also served as Chairman of the Chung-Hua Institution for Economic Research and the Cross-Straits Common Market Foundation.

Before leaving for Washington, D'Amato commented, "Mr. Siew is here to tell U.S. officials that, if elected, a Ma-Siew administration will not create any extra headaches for the United States. And, given his pedigree, Mr. Siew will also see to it that Taiwan, once and for all, fully becomes part of the Asian economic growth story."

D'Amato founded Park Strategies, LLC, a business and political consulting firm, headquartered in New York City, in 1998. The firm has a wide range of banking, telecommunications, energy, and health care clients, among others. Senator D'Amato can be seen as a regular contributor/commentator for the Fox News Channel. In addition, D'Amato has a weekly show on Bloomberg Radio, and a weekly segment, Wise Guys, on New York 1 with former New York City Mayor Ed Koch.
